Biography

Geoff Fritz is an Associate at Reed Hilderbrand. He earned a Bachelor of Landscape Architecture degree from Penn State University, where he was awarded the ASLA Certificate of Honor. With prior tenure at Michael Van Valkenburgh Associates and Sasaki Associates, Geoff lends his experience and expertise to all stages of Reed Hilderbrand's project work and is committed to curating and expanding the firm's graphic representation and communication. Geoff is currently project manager for The Contemporary Austin's Betty and Edward Marcus Sculpture Park at Laguna Gloria in Austin, Texas, and the landscape framework plan for the Boston Symphony Orchestra's Tanglewood Music Center in Lenox, Massachusetts. He also serves as project manager and lead designer for projects at Duke University, Harvard Business School, and a 90-acre farm property on Mount Desert Island, ME.
